NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE REQUESTED REPRESENTATION AS OBSERVERS IN SESSIONS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON COPYRIGHT AND RELATED RIGHTS (SCCR)

Fundacja “Centrum Cyfrowe”

Centrum Cyfrowe was established in 2010 as a think-and-do tank with a focus on fostering a digital civic society in Poland through the development of open models for education, science, culture and public information. Its mission is to make the world more inclusive, more cooperative and more open by changing the way people learn, participate in culture, use the internet and exercise their rights as internet users. One of the primary objectives is the introduction of policies and practices related to the open sharing of resources, with particular focus on public resources. It also advocates the use of digital technologies for the public interest, and the development of policies in support of this goal.

The principal areas of work are policymaking and community building with a focus on open education, openGLAM, openness of public resources and copyright reform. Its main modes of activity are: policy work and advocacy, education and training, tech development and research.
